0:02:47 3. DISCUSSION REGARDING VETERANS ACTIVITIES

Mr. Larison stated one of the engraved bricks contained a spelling error. He said after speaking with the engraver, it was determined the best course of action would be to provide the family with a replacement brick. Mrs. Wixom asked whether the board has any involvement with the Veterans Service Officer who visits Carlsbad. Mr. Larison explained the board maintains contact with a Veterans Service Officer and can connect individuals with those services as needed. Mrs. Wixom asked whether there was a way to better promote the availability of the Veterans Service Officer when they are in Carlsbad. Mr. Larison said they can discuss it. He discussed the bronze service dog statue project. Mr. Prentiss stated Wren remains interested in assisting the board with obtaining a statue. Mr. Larison explained the original concept was to install a bronze service dog statue accompanied by bronze puppies. He stated he would provide the board with an update on the status of the project at the next meeting.

0:10:00 4. DISCUSSION OF FOUNDATION FINANCIAL REPORT

Mr. Larison said the current balance of the financial report is $87,317.00.

0:13:22 5. DISCUSSION OF DONATIONS AND SPONSORSHIPS

Mr. Larison reported he has not had any success locating a Navy boat to place at the park. He stated he found one company in Florida willing to sell a riverboat with a Zodiac. Mr. Prentiss asked where the company was located. Mr. Larison responded it is based in Florida. Mrs. Hill asked what a Zodiac boat is. Mr. Larison explained it is a low-profile inflatable boat commonly used by the military. Mr. Angell asked why a John boat similar to those used during the Vietnam War could not be used instead. Mr. Larison said he has not been able to locate one. Mrs. Hill asked for an update on the search for anchors. Mr. Angell stated he has not been able to locate one.

0:13:52 6. DISCUSSION AND SUMMARY OF THE MEETING HELD WITH THE VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS OF THE UNITED STATES (VFW), HONOR GUARD, AND AMERICAN LEGION

Mr. Larison reported the meeting was very productive. He stated representatives from every local veteran's organization attended, with the exception of the American Legion, whose representatives participated by phone. Mr. Larison explained the group discussed several activities and issues affecting veterans in the community. He noted when citizens have veterans-related concerns, they often contact the VFW or the American Legion, while the Veterans Memorial Committee has historically had little involvement in those matters. He said the organizations agreed to work together to improve communication and collaboration. Mr. Larison stated the participants agreed they have the right individuals representing their organizations and citizen input, along with participation from the City, is important. He explained the Veterans Memorial Board can serve as a liaison through its City representatives, while the other veterans' organizations can provide financial support and additional resources. Mr. Larison reported the VFW has agreed to provide a meeting location. He said the Carlsbad Veterans Advisory Group will host the meetings, invite representatives from all veterans' organizations, and encourage City personnel to attend. Mr. Larison said one of the primary topics discussed was education and increasing public awareness of the various veterans' organizations and committees within the community. Mr. Prentiss stated his primary goal in attending the meeting was to learn, and he felt that goal was accomplished. He said many of the attendees shared similar concerns regarding veterans' issues in Carlsbad. Mrs. Hill asked whether the group was affiliated with the Veterans Memorial Park. Mr. Larison said it is not.

0:29:18 7. REVIEW AND DISCUSSION OF THE BENCH PLACEMENT PROCEDURE AT VETERANS PARK

Mr. Prentiss presented a draft of the Veterans Memorial Bench Placement Guidelines for the Veterans Memorial Park. He reviewed the proposed bench styles, the maximum number of benches that may be installed within the park, and the eligibility criteria and application requirements for obtaining a memorial bench. Mr. Prentiss asked whether the City logo could be included on the application. Mrs. Armendarez stated she would discuss the request with City Administration and provide an update at the next meeting.
